Travel is Life, Travel is Home: Travel and Landscape in Japanese Literature, Art, and Culture

Time & Location

April 4 – 6
The University of Iowa (Iowa City, IA)

About

This international conference, hosted by the University of Iowa Japanese Program, will explore the interaction between humans and their environments in Japanese literature, art, and culture. Presentations will cover various forms of travel, such as pilgrimage, tourism, and evacuation. This event is free and open to the public, and is supported through the Institutional Project Support (IPS) grant program.
